

Undergraduate

Undergraduate Policies and Curriculum Committee (UPCC)
General Committee Meeting Agenda

With this many changes, does this warrant a new course?

Mari-Amanda Dyal chimed in: This course has been on the books since 2019. They gave more background on additional courses. This course is giving students a 2nd, more advanced option based on growth.

Motion to approve: Doug Moodie

Second: D. Michael Franklin

Approved by all

Package #4

*Wellstar College and Health and Human Services
Health Promotion and Physical Education Brian Culp*

IHS 2290 (new course)

IHS 3398 (new course)

IHS 4400 (new course)

IHS 4490 (new course)

Integrated Health Science, B.S. (Area F, electives)

First discussion was suggesting that repeatable courses indicate as such in their course description. Amy Jones pointed out that this is not necessary if the repeatable courses are clear in the program outline.

Michelle brought up the Credit Hour Distribution for the IHS 4400 Directed Studies. They

Undergraduate Policies and Curriculum Committee (UPCC)
General Committee Meeting Agenda

Package #10

Bagwell College of Education

Secondary and Middle Grades Education Brendan Callahan and Brian Lawler

MAED 4414 (title, prereq/coreq)
MAED 4415 (title, description, prereq/coreq, credit hour distribution)
MAED 4416 (title, prereq/coreq, credit hour distribution)
MAED 4417 (title, description, prereq/coreq, credit hour distribution)
MAED 4418 (new course)
MAED 4650 (prereq/coreq)
MAED 4660 (prereq/coreq, credit hour distribution)
SCED 4414 (prereq/coreq)
SCED 4415 (title, description, prereq/coreq, credit hour distribution)
SCED 4416 (prereq/coreq)
SCED 4417 (title, description, prereq/coreq, credit hour distribution)
SCED 4650 (description, prereq/coreq, credit hour distribution)
SCED 4660 (description, prereq/coreq, credit hour distribution)
Secondary Education, BSED (Area F, Program of Study Requirements, Program of Study Credit Hour Total)

SCED courses are truly new courses but they were on the books from years ago (and not offered). Curriculum Office made the recommendation that they do Course Change forms and these like New Courses. To reiterate, the forms that were completed was recommended by the Curriculum Office and the Registrar.