

DIGITAL LEARNING POLICY

Overview

The Keeping Sights Upward Journey Honors College provides curricular and co-curricular opportunities for highly interactive and engaged learning experiences. While this is typically achieved in an in-person setting, HON courses may on occasion be delivered online, provided that they meet the requirements listed below.

Scope

1. Only HON 1000 An Introduction to Honors Education; HON 1100 The First-Year Honors Colloquium: An Introduction to Honors; HON 2400 Honors Discovery (0 credit hours); HON 3000 Honors Colloquium (1 credit hour);

Existing Courses

Faculty teaching an existing course are encouraged to complete the Universal Design Learning \(UDL\) Experience or Essential Course Facilitation Strategies \(ECFS\) workshops and send the badge to the Associate Dean for Academics.

Course Periodic Review

Courses offered online should be reviewed at a minimum once every five years, or less if a substantial change has occurred. Tracking will be supported through the KSU Course Modality Dashboard.

Questions

Please direct questions related to online teaching in honors to the Associate Dean for Academics.

May 26, 2023