

As you explore this traveling exhibit, you will have a choice of questions to answer. The list of questions appears in the first column. Write your answers in the second column.

What was Jewish life like before the Holocaust?

Choose ONE question from these two. Circle the question you are going to answer.

1. How many Jewish people lived in Germany before the war? What kinds of jobs did they do?
2. What word would you use to describe life for Jews in Europe before the Nazis came to power? Explain your answer.

What happened to the victims?

Choose TWO questions from these four. Circle the questions you are going to answer.

1. What was "Kristallnacht"?
2. Look at the main photo of broken windows on Kristallnacht. What do you think the people are doing? Explain your answer.
3. Read the story about Norbert Friedman's farewell to his mother. How do you think this made him feel?
- 4.

What did other countries do to help?

Choose ONE question from these two. Circle the question you are going to answer.

1. Describe what happened to the passengers of the St. Louis after they left Germany.
2. What did Norbert do after he arrived at each camp? Why do you think he did this?

What happened after liberation?

Choose ONE question from these three. Circle the question you are going to answer.

1.

What was life like after the Holocaust? And What should I do now?

Choose FOUR questions from these seven. Circle the questions that you are going to answer.

1. Do you think Norbert's young age helped him to survive during the Holocaust? Why or why not?
2. How do you think Norbert felt when he experienced discrimination in the United States?
3. Study the map of the camps where Norbert was imprisoned during the Holocaust. In which four countries were the camps located?
4. Describe what you learned about Norbert Friedman's life in this exhibit?
5. How do you think Norbert was able to survive so much adversity?
6. What examples of human kindness did Norbert experience during the Holocaust?
7. How does Norbert's story inspire you to fight hatred and bullying in your school?
