

- Under the regular search box in the profile section, there is an advanced search link.
- Within the advanced Pivot search, users can search the profiles of other researchers within KSU or search across profiles globally.
- Searches can accept multiple terms.
- Users can search within specific profile sections to find users with a desired experience or a particular expertise.
- When looking for a research partner, consider initially limiting our search to keywords and expertise.

